Mayor Swearingin is an attractive, intelligent and personable woman, but I don't agree with her politics. Under her tutelage, Fresno has risen to the esteemed position of one of the dirtiest and poorest cities in the entire United States.

Now she wants to do the same good work for the state of California. I have mixed emotions. I would like to see her leave the office of mayor, but I certainly wouldn't want to see her in any higher position.

She says public service is what she craves, perhaps she should try a job working with the poor, not an elected office.
