Fresno

March 12, 2014

Let me see if I have this right. The young mayor is now running for California state controller with years left on her oath to Fresno. Political ambitions prevailing. Wow.

Her legacy is a boondoggle and I do mean the literal use of the word as defined in any dictionary. Look it up and learn. The destruction of a historical Fresno landmark. Gambling millions to see if it might work. My tax dollars used at her whim and then -- poof! She's gone. But we will have a brand new and highly successful Fulton Mall. Really?

She is so politically obvious, ordinary and predictable. Thanks for the heads up, mayor. Good luck in accomplishing dual goals. In the meantime, pretty much everything you say to "cuddle" Fresno will be tainted -- knowing that you really could not care less on your way up the ladders of power.
