The Fresno Economic Opportunities Commission is asking for the public's help to replenish its stock of warm clothes, sleeping bags and toiletries for homeless youth after its shelter was robbed of more than $1,000 worth of items Dec. 6.

Sanctuary Homeless Youth Shelter's outreach materials, which include travel-sized shampoo, conditioner, soap, sweatshirts and sweat pants, new undergarments and socks, are needed for its Warming The Homeless Project held every December.

During the event, the Sanctuary Outreach Team identifies sites where homeless youth congregate and set up a table with information while providing runaways, age 16 to 24, with a hot meal, warm clothing and other essentials, the agency said.

Donations can be dropped off at the shelter, 2336 Calaveras St., between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. through Dec. 19.

Monetary donations can be made at www.fresnoeoc.org/donate. For more information, call (559) 498-8543.
