

Prosecutors Recommend Gen. Petraeus Face Charges Over Classified Information

By Devlin
Barrett

WASHINGTON—The Justice Department is weighing whether to file criminal charges against retired Gen. David Petraeus for allegedly providing classified information to his former mistress, according to people close to the case.

Gen. Petraeus left his job as the head of the Central Intelligence Agency in 2012 because of an extramarital affair.

The investigation of Gen. Petraeus began with a Federal Bureau of Investigation probe...

- Copyright ©2015 Dow Jones & Company, Inc. All Rights Reserved.

©2015 Dow Jones & Company, Inc. All Rights Reserved.