

Walmart to hire nearly 100 for Fresno store

The Fresno Bee January 13, 2015

Walmart is hiring up to 95 workers to work at a Walmart Neighborhood Market in central Fresno that will open this spring.

Walmart said it is hiring for a neighborhood market is under construction at the former Cedar Lanes Bowling Center at Cedar and Shields avenues.

Walmart is hiring full- and part-time workers, who will begin work in January.

To apply for a job, go to the temporary hiring center at 3786 N. Blackstone Ave., next to a Subway sandwich shop, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. Applicants can also apply online at <http://careers.walmart.com>.

Eligible employees can receive benefits such as health insurance, 401(k) retirement matches of up to 6%, discounts, life insurance and participate in a stock purchase program.

Walmart also has a Veterans Welcome Home Commitment in which it will offer a job to any veteran who has been discharged within the last 12 months. More details about that program are available at <http://walmartcareerswithamission.com>.

Join The Conversation

Copyright

© 2015 www.fresnobee.com and wire service sources. All Rights Reserved. <http://www.fresnobee.com>