

The 10 Best Cities For Young Entrepreneurs

NerdWallet tallied the top metro areas by population to determine this (surprising!) list of the best cities for young founders. With an equal weighting of loan data, cost of living, business activity, education and income, they've crunched the numbers to tally an overall score for 42 major cities. These 10 came out on top—and (shockingly!) the Alley and the Valley are nowhere to be found.
